CARBO CAMPHYLENE.

Is particularly useful for the Toilet and for the Disinfection of Bath-rooms, Sick-rooms, Bed-rooms, Chambers, Commodore, &c., as in place of bad smells it leaves a refreshing odour.

AS A SAFEGUARD.

A little sprinkled on the Handkerchief or on Cotton-wool and kept in front of the Nose and Mouth in infected rooms or in passing through infected districts is strongly recommended.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

FOR SICK-ROOMS AND BED-ROOMS,
A tea-spoonful in each saucer distributed round the Room or evaporated by the aid of a lamp.

FOR SPRINKLING OF SPRAY.

A wine-glassful to a pint of water.

CARBOLIC POWDER.

For the purification of Houses, Cess-pools, Drains, Water-closets, &c., and for the Disinfection of Sick-rooms.

CARBOLIC ACID.

FOR DISINFECTING PURPOSES.

Half-an-ounce (about one table-spoonful) of this Acid when well mixed with one quart of water forms a superior disinfectant and deodorizing fluid.

Half-a-pint of the Solution thus formed, when added to any vessel used in the Sick-room, will prevent any unpleasant effluvia, and preserve the contents for Medical Inspection. It also purifies Drains, Water-closets, &c.

A tea-spoonful of Carbolic Acid exposed on a plate or other vessel in a Sick-room will purify the air and prevent contagion.

PERMANGANATE DISINFECTANT.

Similar to Condy's but cheaper,
it costs a quart bottle.

A nice clean disinfectant for Dwelling-rooms and Bath-rooms.

The Hongkong Telegraph

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, JUNE 12, 1894.

OFFICIAL IGNORANCE.

At yesterday's Council meeting the hon. A. J. LEACH, Q.C., Acting Attorney General, said:—

I believe the first note of alarm in the colony, a note of real alarm that the plague was amongst us, was issued by the morning paper on the 10th of last month. There no doubt had been some rumours current that the plague had visited the colony, but nothing was actually ascertained, and no information was given to the Government until the morning of May 10th last.

Well, all we can say, LEACH, Q.C., thinks fearfully funny things when he does get on to thinking; and that when a high official of the Government thinks he is correct, it is prima facie a thousand-to-one chance he is wrong. The first note of real alarm that the plague was amongst us was issued by an evening paper on the 9th and echoed by the morning paper on the 10th. As far back as April 26th the Telegraph, in reporting the ravages of the plague at

Canton, earnestly urged the Hongkong authorities to beware; the plague was not there then, but threatened to come at any moment, and though perhaps it was already too late to have effectively closed our doors against it, the Government certainly did no good by ignoring what was in the Telegraph. We say it not reproachfully—in a serious crisis like this recrimination is the worst policy; but in self-defence we must protest against an official—even though only an "acting" one—going out of his way to make the barefaced assertion that the first note of alarm in the Colony was uttered by the Evening Press on May 10th. Perhaps that was the first within the Government ken; if so, so much the more blame to the Government, for in these days it is an imperative duty to read the newspapers and ascertain what is going on. Seeing how important it always is that the authorities should be well posted, we wrote to the Registrar-General early on the 9th, apprising him of what had come to our knowledge, and (assuming that he was in possession of the facts) asking for details as to the deaths registered from plague. In his reply, which was received the same morning, he alleged that none of the deaths registered were due to plague; which was only to be expected, as there is no law in this Colony requiring a proper certificate of death from a qualified medical man. There apparently the matter rested as far as the Registrar-General was concerned, for he does not seem to have thought it his duty to take any action on our information. So the Government waited until the Daily Press took our cue—and then Mr. Acting Attorney-General LEACH gave the morning paper the sole credit. Here are the two reports, which speak for themselves:—

Telegraph, May 9th. Daily Press, May 10th.

A fatal disease some-what similar to its effects to the "black fever," which has carried off thousands of the natives of Canton during the past month, and of which particular cases appeared in these columns on the 26th ult., has, we regret to learn, made its appearance among the Chinese residents in the Tai-ping-shan district, of whom upwards of a score are said to have fallen victims since Saturday. So serious, indeed, has the state of affairs become in the congested parts of China-town that a special and elaborate investigation will be conducted in Tank Lane and other crowded parts of Tai-ping-shan to-morrow, with a view to driving away or eradicating the evil spirits credited with the introduction of the fatal disease. As this disease is said to be exceedingly infectious, it is to be hoped the authorities will be alive to their responsibilities. The Registrar of Deaths, it may be added, courteously informs us that the deaths in Tai-ping-shan district to-day are stated to have been from diarrhoea, phthisis, bronchitis, etc.; none from plague. In Chinese circles, however, the existence of a very fatal disease of some kind in Tai-ping-shan is isolated upon.

It is now known that the plague had, as we said, got a footing in the colony, and it has since cost us over fifteen hundred lives, the Colony is being deserted by its inhabitants and shunned by outsiders, trade is paralysed, money is being perforce spent like water, and heaven only knows where the awful visitation will end. And all this because the Government waited for the Daily Press to give the first warning! Sir WILLIAM ROBINSON is by his own confession tarred with the same brush; for he said:—"Until the last few days, I never had any knowledge that there was a single infirmity building in Chinatown, or in any part of the Colony." Such ignorance is a grave fault, especially when the facts have been so often and so forcibly stated. We have for months, ay, and for years past been exerting every effort to open the eyes of the authorities to the three great dangers—water, drainage, and overcrowding in filthy tenements. We could quote numerous instances even during his Excellency's term of office here, and shall be happy to supply him with back numbers if he wants them. Not that we should glory in the fatal accuracy of our predictions, but simply that Governor ROBINSON says he was never warned, and we cannot allow any such paltry plea to pass unchallenged, as it is a reflection on ourselves in our public capacity, which we must vindicate, even while overlooking for the moment the usual attempt to throw the blame on somebody else.

THE "RIVERSDALE" ON SHORE.

The British steamship Riversdale, Capt. E. Peck, which left here for Hongkong (Tongkin) on May 31st, under charter to the Société Française des Charbonnages du Tonkin, ran aground on the return voyage in the Straits of Malacca, a few miles in the vicinity of Malacca, having on board a cargo of about three thousand tons of coal. No detailed particulars of the accident have been received here, but, in reply to inquiry, Messrs. Dodwell, Carill & Co., the local agents of the Riversdale, courteously inform us that the steamer was expected to get afloat after "lightening" about a thousand tons of her cargo.

The Riversdale ought to have been in port this morning had all gone well, but some unexpected trouble may have arisen in getting the ship afloat, which it is just as easy to hang one's self with a silver wire as with a hempen rope.

The steamship Sirathula, which arrived from Hongkong this morning, reports nothing regarding the Riversdale.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The British flag-ship Centurion was at Kobe on the 4th inst.

The P. & O. S. N. Co.'s steamer Canton left Singapore for this port at 6 a.m. to-day.

DR. BURGE has been specially appointed in Shanghai to inspect vessels arriving from Hongkong.

Berlin Ble—Why are you an old donkey?

G. Sharpe—Why am I, please?

Berlin Ble—Because G. Sharpe is always der same as a fish.

MOUNT CAELAN, a volcano in the Negros Islands, Philippines, ejected vast quantities of ash, covering the adjoining islands as far as Iloilo, on the 25th ult.

The Halpion Conter says that the Hongkong mines are turning out 450 tons of coal per day. About two thousand coolies are at work, besides the new "steam navy."

MR. D. E. BROWN, the popular general agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., who has been on a short visit to Japan, returned to the colony this morning by the Pacific Mail Co.'s steamship City of Rio de Janeiro.

BROTHER KITT, of the London Lyceum, is said to have been great success in "Charles's Aunt" at the Shanghai Lyceum on Saturday last. We must peruse Kitts to play Hamlet when he returns to this Gem of the Orient.

Jlex—Dr. Squills locks blue.

Wink—No wonder.

Wink—Do you make that out?

Wink—People are afraid of the plague that they won't get sick at all!

HALF-A-DOZEN Celestials, who had displayed their contempt for British ideas of law and order as well as Western methods of disinfection by firing crackers in profusion were brought up to-day before Mr. H. E. Woodhouse, who dismissed the charge, apparently participating in the contempt shown.

SON OF PLOWS HONGKONG Parent—I say, dad, is Granney Sharp an abolition of Becky Sharp?

Plovs Parent—I hardly think so, my boy, though there is certainly a resemblance between the characters—the one was created by Thackeray in England, while the other by only heaven knows whom!

LAWLESSNESS seems to be just as prevalent in the French colonies as in the neighbouring country which they are so anxious to civilise by annexation. An armed gang of brigands on the 30th May raided a village behind the Saigon race-course, and though the police captured three suspected persons the main body escaped.

At the Magistrate's to-day, before Mr. H. E. Woodhouse, two coolies who had broken into a house that had been closed as insanitary, in Tai-ping-shan Lane, and who had stolen therefrom two brass taps, were convicted and sent to gaol, one for six weeks, and the other, an old offender, for six months. Six weeks' hard was also the prescription for two similar offenders caught in Yu Wo Lane.

THE N. C. Daily News (of the 9th instant) says:—

Rumours are floating about of stirring events to happen in Corea. The 2,000 Chinese soldiers that Viceroy Li is sending over in the Haseo, Haitung and Towang, are to be reinforced by 10,000 more, and Japan is sending at least an equal number. Corea is to be incorporated into China as a province with Lord Li as Viceroy, the King and Queen being interned at Pootung, the acquiescence of Japan being secured by the present of Quelpart and other islands where Japanese fish. Meanwhile a Chinese and a Japanese fleet are watching each other off the coast, and a British squadron at Port Hamilton is watching them both.

Now that the plague is forcing people to study the sanitary aspect of their surroundings, not merely in Hongkong but at every port in China, we beg to call the attention of the Directors of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation to the conditions of their premises at Canton at Amoy. The Bank's headquarters at that port is an admirable building architecturally, it is conveniently situated, suitably appointed and well-kept. In every respect it reflects credit upon the Bank and its local management; but on the one side it is bounded, although unseen, by the foulest drabs of the most notoriously filthy city in the Chinese Empire. Behind it and on either side is a confused mass of rotten hovels, where cholera ravages in summer and small-pox is epidemic in winter. By day, thanks to the sunlight, the breeze and the air, it may be the activity of commerce, the life is not so very bad; it is, of course, malarious and malarious, but at night it is fearfully cold and nauseous. Nevertheless under some ancient B. & N. rule, the accountant is obliged to live and sleep on the premises, and as a consequence every one who has filled that position has broken down with fever and severe sickness time and time again. There is certainly no tangible reason for keeping up the rule, and there is every reason for its abrogation. It may have been necessary years ago, when almost the entire European colony lived along the Bund, when the foul drains were not built and when, in place of the hotel, there was a comparatively clean booth. But to-day all the Europeans live on Kowloon, and the conditions of that period have vanished. The rule is no protection against burglars. If burglars forced their way in, no European would be so defenceless, and even if he were on guard against such intruders he could summon no neighbours nor give any alarm. It seems unjust that a rule the raison d'être of which has passed away should be maintained, when its enforcement means the possible death and the probable illness of some first-class young member of the Bank's staff. If any of the Directors were kept in the place for a single night, we are inclined to think that the rule would be abolished before morning.

The clothing of the attendants in the New Tung Wah Hospital at Kennedy Road may be applied described as broken China-wear.

The Chevaliers d'industrie of Merile England were called "gentlemen of the road;" in Hongkong they are gentlemen of Queen's Road.

A REGULAR meeting of St. John's Lodge, No. 618, S.C., will be held in the Freemasons' Hall, Zealand Street, this evening, at 8.30 for 9 o'clock precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

MR. A. J. Balfour, the Conservative leader, is now posing as a rabid bi-metallicist. Brother Balfour may find that it is just as easy to hang one's self with a silver wire as with a hempen rope.

ON the night of the 5th inst., about half past ten, a small steamer engaged on the mail service between Saigon and Cambodia sank a rice-laden junk which was lying alongside the steamship Albatross in the Saigon river. No damage to life or limb.

The first aerial voyage was made on September 29th, 1783, by a sheep, a cock and a duck to a height of 1,500 feet. The first human traveller through the air was M. Francis Pilate de Rozier, who mounted the following month in a free balloon.

SOME local Chinese philanthropists are stated to have arranged to hire steam-launches wherein to carry away plague-stricken patients. This is a capital system for reducing the surplus population not only of Hongkong, but also of Macao, Swatow, Amoy and other coast ports.

THE San Francisco Daily Commercial News of May 16th says:—A portion of a large bamboo pole, cut with Oriental hiroglyphics, and probably the relic of some Chinese or Japanese shipwreck, was found in the drift along the rocky cliffs of Ne Kearney, Or., by some Whelan fishermen last week. The piece was 23 ft. long and nine inches in diameter at the butt.

THE Manila papers have published frequent telegrams from the Spanish Consul in Hongkong announcing that "the plague is decreasing rapidly;" and even on the 29th May that "for three days there has been no death"—en tres dias no hay una defuncion. Unless there has been some very serious telegraphic error, the worthy Siffo has been lamentably deceived. Probably he reads the Daily Press.

MR. J. D. Humphreys asks us to intimate to the information of the ratepayers that he does not offer himself for re-election to the Sanitary Board. After his recent exhibitions it is as well that he always was one of the best-intentioned of men to be found; but good intentions are said to form the pavement of a certain "royal road" on which Hongkong appears to be rushing at full speed just now.

A TELEGRAM to Tokyo dated Jinsen 3rd inst. says:—The forces of the Toguoku Party continue to increase. The Government army has been again defeated, the Commander-in-Chief being among those killed. The whole of the province of Chullado is occupied by the insurgents. Telegraphic communication with the disturbed districts has been cut off. The Government has dispatched another reinforcement of 600 men. Later advices indicate that the Seoul Government has to march on the capital to secure, for a time at any rate, the objects of their mission. The proposal is said to have been made to hire foreign troops to quell the outbreak, but was rejected on the ground that the step would reflect on the prestige of the kingdom.

"BRITANNIA rules the waves," but the gallant old lady, if she is manipulated, does not appear to get along in her special business quite as satisfactorily as might be the case. This journal has with infinite regret had during the past few years to chronicle Royal Naval disasters, caused through gross incompetency or criminal neglect, heart-rending enough to make the angels weep; the latest catastrophe is only one more terrible example of that frequent occurrence in the British navy, the loss of a ship. The Thetis, a 1,000-ton gunboat, was lost on the 10th inst. in the Channel, the British cruiser Galatea—well-known in connection with that eminent fiddler, the Duke of Edinburgh—whose washing bill in Sydney will remain unliquidated and who, although a German recruiting monarch, is yet a pensioner on the British Treasury—fired the customary salute (an idiosyncrasy of money which is a disgrace to the age in which we live)—and then? Well, "someone had blundered." Instructor Lawrence's head was blown to pieces, one of Instructor Whitehead's arms was taken clean away from the elbow, and a number of the crew were injured. One of the sailing guns had exploded—that was all; but, as in the case of the Yacht Wholesale murders in the Canton river ten years ago, nobody has been or is likely to be hung for this disgraceful and unwarranted sacrifice of human life.

In the sixteenth century, says Harper's Magazine, the system of slavery was fast disappearing from Western Europe as being inconsistent with their duty for Christians to hold Christians as slaves. But this charity did not extend to heathens and infidels! In the latter part of the Seventeenth century the African slave trade was considered the most profitable part of British commerce. New England, naturally followed the lead of older colonies, and her exchanges for humanity, of rum, molasses and other commodities acceptable to the Guinea and Gold coasts began. In 1687 Samuel Maverick of Massachusetts bought African slaves, and in 1690 "a negro man" was sold for every well-to-do family had its quota of negroes for necessary domestic service and labour on the plantations of the Northern agriculturalists, not in large numbers, as later on the cotton plantations of the South, but one or two, or even seven or eight in a family. The slaves imported were of various colours, tribes, and physiognomies. Some were jet black, with features approaching those of the European; some were of a tawny yellow, with flat noses and projecting jaws. These latter, coming from the delta of the Niger, were noted for an indomitable capacity for endurance, and therefore esteemed the most valuable. A few were Mohammedans, among whom were occasionally found persons of some education, who knew Arabic and could read the Koran. But the great mass were pagans, in a condition of gross barbarism.

The Manila papers on the 12th inst. reported the death of Captain Taylor of the steamship Emeralda, and put in some flattering obituary work, but took it all back again next day when they found him still alive and kicking. "George" is in the very best of health and spirits, we are glad to say. So also is Capt. Gerard, whom the Diario puts down as the "revived corpse."

KIUKIANG has a post-office and a full set of postage-stamps of its own. Now let Amoy, Swatow and Kowloon come to the front and do likewise. And while we are at it, let us start local P.O.s at Green Island and Tai-ping-shan. The Central American republics, by their entire incomes by issuing new stamps every year. Why should the noble Castilian and the denizens of the Yang-tze have a monopoly of this lucrative source of revenue?

SUPREME COURT.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

(Before Mr. A. G. Wise, Acting Puisne Judge.)

June 12th.

THE HOTEL COMPANY'S CALLS.

The suit of the Hongkong Hotel Company, Limited, against J. R. Michael, for calls on shares amounting with interest to $513, was again called up to-day. Mr. J. Hastings (Mr. V. H. Deacon's office) was for the plaintiff company, and the defendant appeared in person.

In giving judgment, the learned judge said:—The defendant admits having taken the fourteen shares, but says that as he sold them he is not liable for the two $15 calls made subsequent to transfer. He did not have his name struck off the share register, and he has been long enough in the Colony dealing in shares to know that it was his business to get the transfer registered and the purchaser's name substituted for his own. After looking up the authorities I have no doubt that on this point I must rule against him. As to the other point, raised by Mr. Hastings, the books were certainly kept in a very slovenly manner—there is no entry of the directors' resolutions making the calls; but the verbal evidence given by Mr. Lyall, the secretary, is sufficient to prove that the calls were duly made. I therefore give judgment for the plaintiffs.

GOVERNOR ROBINSON ASSERTS HIMSELF.

At a meeting of the Legislative Council, held yesterday afternoon to specially pass the Sanitary Board Bill, Governor Robinson, Sir William Robinson, came out in quite a new character—a man with the courage of his opinions, a British official prepared at all hazards to uphold British interests, a true friend of Hongkong. We congratulate his Excellency on his new rôle and on the success which has attended an admirably timed and most diplomatic change of front, and only hope that he will act up to what he has publicly pledged himself. Reserving critical analysis and comment for another occasion, we applaud the speech.

His Excellency said:—Gentlemen, as you have kindly permitted this Bill to be read a third time, I think it would be of interest to you and certainly of interest to the general public, if I take this opportunity of stating that this is only a temporary measure, and indeed I may call it a preliminary instalment of sanitary legislation which I propose to lay before the Council very shortly. It is very evident, looking at the fearful risks by which we are surrounded, that some strong and drastic measure is necessary, and I feel perfectly confident that if a good and reasonable measure is placed on this table we shall receive the full approval of the community in carrying it through all its stages. I think our position is as follows: This is a British colony and it will always remain one. We are very pleased to see living amongst us a number of the lower class of Chinese, who are a useful, very orderly, industrious, and useful people. We are also glad to welcome amongst us honest and energetic Chinese merchants, who assist and share, as they likewise have done in the prosperity of the colony; but we all know perfectly well, and the Chinese know it perhaps better than we do, that they have not chosen this place out of any regard for the British or European community, nor for any regard or respect for British laws or customs. They have merely found this to be a very safe and convenient place where, free from undue interference and where they are not very heavily taxed, they can earn a comfortable livelihood, and, in many cases, rise to a comfortable competence. Such being the state of the case it certainly was the duty of the Government to take care that, owing to the want of sanitary measures consistent on the well-known disregard of all sanitary principles by the Chinese and their peculiar mode of life—if it was the duty of the Government to take care that the health of the community should not suffer in any way by their residence amongst us. Why this duty has not been thoroughly recognised I am at a loss to conceive. I am afraid that it will be found as in many other cases, it was a question of divided responsibility. There is no doubt that the Government have the strongest possible measures, and the powers given by the measures were, I believe, delegated to the Sanitary Board. That Sanitary Board probably delegated its powers to a Superintendent with his staff, and that Superintendent—I do not say it is the fact, but it is possible—that Superintendent looked upon it as a matter of course that landlords and owners of houses would make all the necessary alterations in their houses, and any pressure being put upon them. All I can say is that since I have been in this colony, which is more than two years, I never until the other day received from the Sanitary Board, or any other Board, any notice that there was a single insanitary dwelling in Chinatown or elsewhere in the colony. However, if blame is to be attached to the Government in the past, I am determined at all events that it shall not be attached to the Government in the future, and with this object I have asked the Attorney-General to prepare a Bill, the main principle of which I will endeavour to explain to you as shortly as possible. As stated by Mr. Leach just now, that very able and energetic member of the community, Mr. Funn, is, Q.C., has shown the greatest ability and energy in grappling with all the corresponding and the many difficulties which have arisen out of this epidemic. That learned Q.C. has promised to assist in preparing a bill which I hope will render a recurrence of such an epidemic as the one now with us impossible in the future. This Bill will of course be of a very drastic character. It will give the Government—this is of course simply what we propose—power that the Government power to enter into immediate possession of, pull down, and destroy, all dwelling-houses and blocks of houses unfit for human habitation. It will provide that the Government shall at once resume the possession of all land on which such dwellings are built, paying of course compensation for so doing. It will provide that the Government shall have power to enter all houses now insanitary, though capable of being put into thorough sanitary condition. Owners will be compelled to attend to such defects in the houses as render them in-sanitary. The Government will have power to survey and re-arrange all lots so taken, and open up new roads and improve the old ones. Power will also be given to enter and inspect all Chinese houses; such houses will be numbered and classified, and a fixed number of tenants will be allotted to each house and room, and owners will be obliged to enter into a covenant that that number shall not in any case be exceeded; any infraction will of course be followed by heavy penalties. There are naturally and necessarily many questions of detail, questions, for instance, of providing for those removed from infected districts, questions dealing with the rights of mortgagees and lessees, and questions of awarding compensation; but, roughly speaking, the main features of the Bill are those I have endeavoured to describe. With an Ordinance of this sort in force I need hardly tell you that Tai-ping-shan and a great many streets not in Tai-ping-shan will probably be razed to the ground and re-erected on proper sanitary principles. You will understand that such a measure as this affects many existing interests and will be of a very complicated character, and necessarily the Attorney-General, even with the assistance of Mr. Francis, will require some considerable time to prepare it. I can only hope, however, that he will not keep us long in suspense, for I think that the old adage "Strike while the iron is hot" is most applicable just now. I feel also certain that when the Bill comes before you, recognising the necessity for some very strong measure and realising the dreadful effect of the plague on the best interests of the colony if any half measures should be adopted, you will give it your full and ready support. There is another matter connected with the plague which I may refer to, and that is the possibility of increasing our water supply. I suppose that the drought to a great measure is responsible for this epidemic, and I understand that there is a large storage capacity available both at the Tytan Reservoir and at Pokfulam, if the Council were to decide that the storage capacity should be increased. I may say that in my own opinion it will be no use giving a larger supply of water to the Chinese quarters unless it is distributed in a proper manner by responsible officials. What we want, as was well said in the paper this morning, is not so much a horse-to-horse visitation as a drain-to-drain visitation, and unless we can flush these drains regularly I am afraid we shall not get rid of the seeds of the disease. It would be retrograde of me to say, perhaps, that the separate drainage system is a failure, but I cannot help being of opinion that the proper system, if it could be carried out, for China-town would be the best system (I mean, I mean) which is in force in the West India Islands where I have resided. There you see everything above ground, and you do not see the dead rats, the dead cats, and old rags that fill up the drains and cause such a nuisance here. I should be glad to know what the feeling of the unofficial members in regard to the additional water supply. I should be prepared to call for reports from experts in the matter, if they considered it advisable, and I understand that for a moderate expense—$70,000 or $80,000—we could get 70,000,000 gallons more at Tytan alone. Before sitting down I think there is one other thing I ought to say and that is that I am sure the community at large and the Government feel most deeply indebted to the Military and Naval authorities for the gallant voluntary assistance which the officers and men have given to us, and are still affording us during the plague (Applause). They have thrown themselves into the disgusting and filthy work with true characteristic British pluck, and one gallant officer has sacrificed his life in endeavouring to assist the community. I am quite sure that when the sad history of this plague is written, one of the brightest spots will be that page which records how officers and men, numbering over three hundred in all, gallantly risked their lives by risking their lives, with a view to saving the lives of thousands of others from whom they could never expect recompense, or thanks, or any reward whatever. (Applause). I fully endorse all that the Attorney-General has said with reference to Mr. Francis. I appreciate his help most thoroughly. I also wish to say that the Government is indebted to several public officers and lay volunteers, though the latter are not in such numbers as I should like to see, for the courage and energy they have shown in endeavouring to grapple with this disease. I hope, therefore, gentlemen, after what I have said, that you will be prepared to give the Government your fullest and most hearty support in any measure and in any action we may take not only to stamp out this plague but to prevent a recurrence of it in the near future.

ANTI-FOREIGN RIOTS IN CANTON.

TWO LADIES BRUTALLY ATTACKED.

A fortnight or so ago the wildest and most absurd rumours were circulating both here and in Canton regarding the methods adopted by the Hongkong Government, and its foreign medical men in particular, for grappling with the plague and the treatment meted out to the unfortunate wretches overtaken by that disease. Women were said to have been kidnapped and young children slaughtered for the sake of the invaluable remedial qualities contained in their eye-balls; nothing, in fact, that the fiends could devise or cruelly conceive was being left untried by the outer barbarians. And these stories were not alone believed in by the ignorant coolie class. To this office a man in prosperous circumstances, and who has had over thirty years of close intercourse with foreigners, came—his quis almost on end and every fibre of his body quivering with intense excitement, to protest against the cruelties being practised by the Government. When men of this class actually believe these stories, how then can it be wondered at that densely ignorant coolies not only credit but in their excitement add to them? The streets of Hongkong have given ample testimony of the childish credulity on the part of the Chinese; what then might be expected from a Canton mob? Placards have been stuck up on almost every available wall in that city detailing the alleged iniquities of the Fox Kwat and advising speedy measures of revenge. An outbreak of popular hatred, inevitable sooner or later, occurred yesterday in Honam and as is usually the case when Chinese mobs are concerned, defenceless women were the victims. From advices received here this morning, it seems two missionary ladies, Miss Fulton and Mrs. Noyes, were walking through one of the streets of that suburb, and noticing a dying coolie, lying unattended by the wayside, they approached to render what assistance they could. Miss Fulton, who is a doctor of medicine, applied a bottle of smelling-salts to the nostrils of the man while Mrs. Noyes gently raised his head. Unfortunately at that moment the coolie expired; and the opportunity was far too good to be allowed to pass by the gaping crowd who had gathered round to witness the extraordinary sight of two foreign women tending a dying man! They immediately raised the cry "The foreigners have killed him. Tak!" The ladies, both of whom belong to an American Mission Society, awaking to a sense of their danger, walked quickly off in the direction of their station. They had not proceeded far, however, before the howling mob was upon them; they were knocked down, kicked and jumped upon and finally dragged towards the river bank. Realizing their desperate danger the women fairly fought themselves free from their brutal assailants and rushed to the Custom House, which Miss Fulton reached with her head and face badly cut and covered with blood. Here protection and every attention was afforded the unfortunate lady. Mrs. Noyes in the meantime had sought shelter in a compadre's store, next door to the Custom House, and for a whole hour the premises were bombarded with showers of stones etc. thrown by the disappointed and infuriated mob, who shouted that the "missionaries" should be given up to them. The windows and other portions of the premises were wrecked and it was only when the District Magistrate put in an appearance that the ruffians dispersed. As speedily as possible messages were despatched to the American Consul-General, Mr. Charles Seymour, who accompanied by the British and German Consuls, and a Chinese official from the interests of the United States will be cared for in any emergency that may arise by the United States cruiser New York, which is situated in the River Plate at Montevideo.

The seven tourists who were rescued yesterday from a cave, after having been imprisoned over 200 hours, are progressing toward recovery. Diver Fischer, who was the first to reach the party, is suffering from violent fits of shivering, due to the intense coldness of the water through which he swam. The only nourishment he is able to take is tea and brandy.

Dispatches received here from Rio Janeiro say President Peixoto, in his speech at the opening of Congress yesterday, recommended that the Brazilian coast be fortified, adding that the Government forces were completely organized for the suppression of a revolution, and expressed the hope the recent wounds would be quickly healed.

The entire fleet of the International Steamship Company, comprising the steamers Paris, New York, Chatter, St. Louis and St. Paul, the last two of which are the American lines, the Frisland, Witland, Norland, Westland, Powland, Rhinland, Belg and Switzerland of the Red Star Line, and the Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, of the Philadelphia-Antwerp Service, is mortgaged to the tune of $5,000,000. The announcement of the mortgage was made to-day at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the company. It was explained by Charles M. Hough that the money represented by the mortgage is required for the improvement of the service of the company, and also to complete the new steamers St. Paul and St. Louis, which are expected to be as fast as the Queen Lucania and Campania.

The trial of the photo editors of newspapers charged with circulating the police upon the occasion of the meeting of the unemployed at Friedrichshain, a suburb of Berlin, in January last, when the police were accused of brutality, was commenced to-day. Forty witnesses have been summoned.

A certain "gent one," after "decking" his fellow-soldiers for a subscription to pay back pilfered money, has "done it all" at racing.

A "cute person who, not long since, privately assigned his estate, is credited with having run a racing-stable, a bone-mill (intended to treat at cost price the cracks the racing-stable contained of), a timber-yard, a steamship, a criminal factory, a mill-factory, a line merchant, a building society (with a thousand houses of its kind), a black-factory, a coach-builder, a livery stable (for such racing cracks as were too thin to go to his bone-mill). Lastly, he ran a couple of banks into such thundering overdrafts that for a whole year the managers are rumored to have secretly hired assassins to mutilate their customers' right hand, so as to prevent him signing cheques which they were afraid to dishonour.

Two brothers rent houses at Balasclava (Melb.) One has a ten-roomed house, with two to three acres of land, fruit and vegetable garden, &c., for 10s. weekly. The other has also a ten-roomed house, with hot and cold water laid on, four acres of land (one acre in vines, balance laid out in orchard and vegetable garden), &c., and two cows in milk—all for 6s. (12s) per week. Boom!

At one time every respectable unemployed started life-assurance canvassing; now they all sell tea.

One large Sydney manufacturing firm, with many thousands locked up in reconstructed banks, was recently about to throw up the sponge, but the banks kindly came to the rescue and lent exactly one-fifth of the amount needed at 8 per cent. So it's not true that business people are being unduly harassed by the banks.

The cold-blooded manager of a big reconstructed financial institution has got the board in a tight place, as it has just discovered. In addition to being manager of the new concern he is also liquidator of the old one—the one which burst. The directors want to get rid of him on account of his aggressiveness and his general want of manners; but they find that though they could sack him as manager they couldn't shift him from his other billet as liquidator. And if he continues to be liquidator after they have liquidated the financial by reading on it all its managerial capacity, he may insist on keeping hold of the funds as they come in to meet possible claims, and the new concern may go broke before the cash of the old one can be swatted from him by legal process. And meanwhile the manager, who understands the situation, blinks prominently and makes himself practically unassailable.

Seven thousand Victorians are booked to ship for Westralia before the end of May. They must represent £150,000 solid capital at least. The departure of the boats for the West are the only events which now occur to stir up Melbourne. The vessels are generally crowded, and so are the wharves, and when the emigrants move off hearty cheers go up from both sides.

The Hampton Plains syndicate is said to want 25 p.c. gross royalty from Lord Percy Douglas for prospecting on their 216,000-acre estate; how much he will want from commoners, Heaven only knows. Should Lord P.D. afterwards find much gold there will be 10,000 men at once on Hampton Plains, and no power on earth can keep them off.

One Southern trade-assignee was, five years ago, an invoice-clerk at 30s a week. He has just built himself a mansion. Another only assigned his own estate a couple of years ago, and was so impressed by the facilities afforded his trustee to absorb all his assets that he started on his own account. He now bets in fifties.—Sydney Bulletin.

NEWS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL.

The Pacific Mail S.S. Co.'s steamer, City of Rio de Janeiro, Capt. J. F. Smith, from San Francisco, via Yokohama, with mails up to May 17th, arrived in port this morning. From our San Francisco exchanges we take the following telegrams:—

LONDON, May 8th.
Press and commercial telegrams are arriving to-day from Buenos Ayres as usual, and they make no mention of a revolution having broken out at the capital. A dispatch filed at 1 p.m. at Buenos Ayres makes no reference to the outbreak.

The correspondent of the Times at Buenos Ayres telegraphs as follows: The present situation here verifies my telegram sent at the end of March. During the past ten days business failures have occurred, involving liabilities to the aggregate of nearly $10,000,000. The commercial community expects further failures.

Justice Williams, in reviewing the public examination of the New Zealand Loan and Mercantile Agency Company, endorsed the official receiver's severe criticisms of the directors of that Company, including A. J. Mandella, president of the Board of Trade, Sir James Ferguson, late Under Secretary of the Foreign Office, and Sir John Gorst, formerly Financial Secretary to the Treasury. The newspapers maintain that Mr. Mandella must resign the presidency of the Board of Trade. In addition to the feeling expressed by the newspapers, the general opinion in the city seems to be that the disclosures made in the examination of the affairs of the Company must lead to Mr. Mandella's resignation.

The Parnellites have decided to vote bodily against the second reading of the Budget Bill, three or four Liberals intend to abstain from voting, and three Nationalists are ill. The Government is relying upon a majority of nine votes only. The Conservatives predict the Government will be unable to carry the Budget through the commonsense stage.

The Chronicle advises the immediate calling of a mass meeting of the Government supporters to decide which of its measures shall be thrown overboard in order that the other may be proceeded with.

Donaldson Smith of Philadelphia, who explored Somaliland on the African coast of the Gulf of Aden in 1883, starts on June 1st on a scientific expedition to the unknown region between 200 miles west of Berbera, a town on the coast, and Lake Rudolph, where traces of ancient civilization are believed to exist. Mr. Smith will be accompanied by Gillette, the explorer.

The collapse of the bimetallic movement in the House of Commons on Friday, when Mr. Samuel Smith's motion that the Government endeavour to secure a stable par of exchange for gold and silver by an international agreement was counted out, has caused much comment. The secretary of the Bimetallic League says the spasm of the House is due to the fact that Smith's motion had only a second place at the evening sitting, and the attendance was small, but a full day's discussion will be secured later, when a division will occur.

PARIS, May 8th.
A telegram from Buenos Ayres received here to-night announces the position of the Government as favourable, and the payment of the coupon debt is assured.

The Mail reports that the Government maintain its demand for the extradition of Dr. Cornelius Herz, the Panama lobbyist, from England, in spite of the fact that the courts have accepted the offer of the latter to re-imburse 1,500,000 francs.

ROME, May 8.
A bomb was exploded to-night at the entrance of Prince Odescalchi's palace, in the Prati di Castello quarter. Three persons were slightly injured. No damage was done to the palace.

WASHINGTON, May 8th.
The rumour of a rebellion in Buenos Ayres was received with some surprise by Senator Zeballos, the Argentine Minister. There had been considerable excitement growing out of the election last March of a Governor of Buenos Ayres, in which the Radicals were defeated by the coalition of the other two parties, but the Minister does not believe the defeated party, even if so disposed, could muster force enough for a revolution. The entire army and navy, he says, are thoroughly loyal to the existing Government. As late as Monday morning Senator Zeballos received dispatches from his Government announcing that all was quiet in Argentina.

The interests of the United States will be cared for in any emergency that may arise by the United States cruiser New York, which is situated in the River Plate at Montevideo.

GRATE, May 8th.
The seven tourists who were rescued yesterday from a cave, after having been imprisoned over 200 hours, are progressing toward recovery. Diver Fischer, who was the first to reach the party, is suffering from violent fits of shivering, due to the intense coldness of the water through which he swam. The only nourishment he is able to take is tea and brandy.

Dispatches received here from Rio Janeiro say President Peixoto, in his speech at the opening of Congress yesterday, recommended that the Brazilian coast be fortified, adding that the Government forces were completely organized for the suppression of a revolution, and expressed the hope the recent wounds would be quickly healed.

The entire fleet of the International Steamship Company, comprising the steamers Paris, New York, Chatter, St. Louis and St. Paul, the last two of which are the American lines, the Frisland, Witland, Norland, Westland, Powland, Rhinland, Belg and Switzerland of the Red Star Line, and the Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, of the Philadelphia-Antwerp Service, is mortgaged to the tune of $5,000,000. The announcement of the mortgage was made to-day at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the company. It was explained by Charles M. Hough that the money represented by the mortgage is required for the improvement of the service of the company, and also to complete the new steamers St. Paul and St. Louis, which are expected to be as fast as the Queen Lucania and Campania.

The trial of the photo editors of newspapers charged with circulating the police upon the occasion of the meeting of the unemployed at Friedrichshain, a suburb of Berlin, in January last, when the police were accused of brutality, was commenced to-day. Forty witnesses have been summoned.

A certain "gent one," after "decking" his fellow-soldiers for a subscription to pay back pilfered money, has "done it all" at racing.

A "cute person who, not long since, privately assigned his estate, is credited with having run a racing-stable, a bone-mill (intended to treat at cost price the cracks the racing-stable contained of), a timber-yard, a steamship, a criminal factory, a mill-factory, a line merchant, a building society (with a thousand houses of its kind), a black-factory, a coach-builder, a livery stable (for such racing cracks as were too thin to go to his bone-mill). Lastly, he ran a couple of banks into such thundering overdrafts that for a whole year the managers are rumored to have secretly hired assassins to mutilate their customers' right hand, so as to prevent him signing cheques which they were afraid to dishonour.

Two brothers rent houses at Balasclava (Melb.) One has a ten-roomed house, with two to three acres of land, fruit and vegetable garden, &c., for 10s. weekly. The other has also a ten-roomed house, with hot and cold water laid on, four acres of land (one acre in vines, balance laid out in orchard and vegetable garden), &c., and two cows in milk—all for 6s. (12s) per week. Boom!

At one time every respectable unemployed started life-assurance canvassing; now they all sell tea.

One large Sydney manufacturing firm, with many thousands locked up in reconstructed banks, was recently about to throw up the sponge, but the banks kindly came to the rescue and lent exactly one-fifth of the amount needed at 8 per cent. So it's not true that business people are being unduly harassed by the banks.

The cold-blooded manager of a big reconstructed financial institution has got the board in a tight place, as it has just discovered. In addition to being manager of the new concern he is also liquidator of the old one—the one which burst. The directors want to get rid of him on account of his aggressiveness and his general want of manners; but they find that though they could sack him as manager they couldn't shift him from his other billet as liquidator. And if he continues to be liquidator after they have liquidated the financial by reading on it all its managerial capacity, he may insist on keeping hold of the funds as they come in to meet possible claims, and the new concern may go broke before the cash of the old one can be swatted from him by legal process. And meanwhile the manager, who understands the situation, blinks prominently and makes himself practically unassailable.

Seven thousand Victorians are booked to ship for Westralia before the end of May. They must represent £150,000 solid capital at least. The departure of the boats for the West are the only events which now occur to stir up Melbourne. The vessels are generally crowded, and so are the wharves, and when the emigrants move off hearty cheers go up from both sides.

The Hampton Plains syndicate is said to want 25 p.c. gross royalty from Lord Percy Douglas for prospecting on their 216,000-acre estate; how much he will want from commoners, Heaven only knows. Should Lord P.D. afterwards find much gold there will be 10,000 men at once on Hampton Plains, and no power on earth can keep them off.

One Southern trade-assignee was, five years ago, an invoice-clerk at 30s a week. He has just built himself a mansion. Another only assigned his own estate a couple of years ago, and was so impressed by the facilities afforded his trustee to absorb all his assets that he started on his own account. He now bets in fifties.—Sydney Bulletin.

NOTICE is hereby given that the SEVENTH MEETING of the above COMPANY will be held at the COMPANY'S OFFICES, No. 2, FRIELAYSON GREEN, SINGAPORE, on THURSDAY, 14th July, 1894, at NOON, for the purpose of receiving the Directors' Annual Report and Accounts to 31st December.

THE TRANSFER BOOKS of the Company will be CLOSED from 31st June to 5th July, 1894, both days inclusive.

NOTICE is hereby given that immediately after the close of the Ordinary General Meeting, an EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING will be held, for the purpose of considering, and if thought fit, approving the following Resolution, viz:—

"That Article No. 64 of the Company's Articles of Association be altered in the following manner, viz., the words 'March or April' shall be substituted for the words 'the month of July.'"

"Article No. 65 shall hereafter read:—"

"Subsequent General Meetings shall be held at such place, on such day and place as may be prescribed by the Company in its General Meeting, and if no other day and place is prescribed, in March or April in every year at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors."

LONDON, May 8th.
Press and commercial telegrams are arriving to-day from Buenos Ayres as usual, and they make no mention of a revolution having broken out at the capital. A dispatch filed at 1 p.m. at Buenos Ayres makes no reference to the outbreak.

The correspondent of the Times at Buenos Ayres telegraphs as follows: The present situation here verifies my telegram sent at the end of March. During the past ten days business failures have occurred, involving liabilities to the aggregate of nearly $10,000,000. The commercial community expects further failures.

Justice Williams, in reviewing the public examination of the New Zealand Loan and Mercantile Agency Company, endorsed the official receiver's severe criticisms of the directors of that Company, including A. J. Mandella, president of the Board of Trade, Sir James Ferguson, late Under Secretary of the Foreign Office, and Sir John Gorst, formerly Financial Secretary to the Treasury. The newspapers maintain that Mr. Mandella must resign the presidency of the Board of Trade. In addition to the feeling expressed by the newspapers, the general opinion in the city seems to be that the disclosures made in the examination of the affairs of the Company must lead to Mr. Mandella's resignation.

The Parnellites have decided to vote bodily against the second reading of the Budget Bill, three or four Liberals intend to abstain from voting, and three Nationalists are ill. The Government is relying upon a majority of nine votes only. The Conservatives predict the Government will be unable to carry the Budget through the commonsense stage.

The Chronicle advises the immediate calling of a mass meeting of the Government supporters to decide which of its measures shall be thrown overboard in order that the other may be proceeded with.

Donaldson Smith of Philadelphia, who explored Somaliland on the African coast of the Gulf of Aden in 1883, starts on June 1st on a scientific expedition to the unknown region between 200 miles west of Berbera, a town on the coast, and Lake Rudolph, where traces of ancient civilization are believed to exist. Mr. Smith will be accompanied by Gillette, the explorer.

The collapse of the bimetallic movement in the House of Commons on Friday, when Mr. Samuel Smith's motion that the Government endeavour to secure a stable par of exchange for gold and silver by an international agreement was counted out, has caused much comment. The secretary of the Bimetallic League says the spasm of the House is due to the fact that Smith's motion had only a second place at the evening sitting, and the attendance was small, but a full day's discussion will be secured later, when a division will occur.
